* Represents funding passed through to the state's 24 chartered Regional Workforce Boards (RWB)s.

Brief description of program or funding including funding distribution method (formula or competitive grant): These workforce employment and training funds provided under the federal Workforce Investment Act (WIA) serve adults, youth, and dislocated workers (workers who have lost their jobs due to a business/plant closure or layoff). The WIA funds are primarily formula allocated to the state's 24 regional workforce boards where services are delivered through a network of local one-stop career centers.

Funds are used to provide summer employment opportunities for disadvantaged youth, work experience, on-the-job training, and short-term training and longer term occupational training.

The stimulus funding also includes an allotment under the federal Wagner-Peyser Act that funds the state's network of one-stop career centers and the state's basic employment services that connects employers with job seekers. Most of the funding (62.5%) must be spent to provide Re-Employment Services for customers who are receiving unemployment compensation benefits.

When funds are expected to be available: March 18, 2009

How long are funds available: Until June 30, 2011 for WIA and until September 30, 2011 for the Wagner-Peyser funds.

Conditions or prerequisites for accessing funds (include matching or MOE requirements): None

Federal agency: United States Dept of Labor, Employment and Training Administration

State agency: Agency for Workforce Innovation, Workforce Services
